Our Little Corner of the World

Two new anchor stores are moving into the West Carmel Marketplace located just north of Majestic Plaza on Michigan Rd. The Indianapolis Star reports that both Kohl's and HomeGoods Store will be moving in this summer; the lineup of stores already located in the Marketplace are discount retailer Marshall's, electronics retailer Best Buy, pet supplies retailer Petco and office supplies store OfficeMax. But retailers aren't the only ones looking at this developing area, Resturant chains Red Robin and Burger King are considering locations here. Keep your eye out for newly opening business in the area as the north Michigan corridor is becoming a destination of choice for consumers from the surrounding affluent areas.

ANACORE™
AUTOMATING E-BUSINESS

Anacore is an Indianapolis-based software development firm specializing in developing custom solutions that simplify business processes. Founded by Brandon Fischer in January 2006, to provide small and mid-size businesses with enterprise-class software for a fraction of the price. Anacore has been developing web-based and desktop applications for over a decade. Anacore's software is currently deployed with over 30 companies across the country. These companies have realized a substantial increase in revenue along with increased conversion and customer retention as a direct result of our software. "From an administrative standpoint, these companies have significantly reduced their data management and administrative costs" says Mr. Fisher.

Anacore services range from custom software, website development, and flash media. You can visit their website at www.Anacore.com and search under the "portfolio" tab to search the specific types of services Anacore has provided other companies and how they be able to assist your growing business. Note from the Manager

Let's provide better service to our visitors & customers. We are asking for those employees & executives working in Majestic Plaza complex that plan on staying in the office all morning or afternoon to please park your car at the end of the lot and leave closer spots available for visitors of the complex. We also ask that reserved spots are not to be parked in during business hours. In many cases spots have been reserved for these tenants as a part of a lease and may have cars parked in those spots towed at the owners expense. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
