If this change in weather has you itching to make some changes around your house, add a new deck, fix that leaky basement wall, finally fix that gutter/roofing problem in that back corner, or even add that new 'east wing' on the house, be sure to keep our office in mind. Our senior partner, Majid, has over 35 years experience in the home building industry and has a wealth of knowledge to share. Feel free to call the office and tap into his wisdom regarding most anything construction related. And if he doesn't know, surely he knows someone that knows. Each question costs $0.25. It used to be $0.02 but with inflation.....call him at 317 876-1555.
